SOUR STOMACH

This is a mild form of indigestion. It is usually brought on by eating too rapidly or too much, or of food not suited to your digestive organs. If you will eat slowly, masticate your food thoroughly, eat but little meat and none at all for supper, you will more than likely avoid the sour stomach without taking any medicine whatever. When you have sour stomach take one of Chamberlain's Tablets to aid digestion.

SOCIETY HAPPENINGS

MRS. ALEXANDER ENTERTAINS

The Thursday afternoon club was entertained yesterday afternoon by Mrs. J. H. Alexander, Jr., from four to six o'clock.

The guests were received by the hostess in her usual graceful manner and without preliminary all got to work on Red Cross equipment. The afternoon was thus very pleasantly spent, and at the close the hostess served light refreshments, and she further donated the usual refreshment contribution to the relief fund.

During the afternoon the guests were entertained by Miss Elizabeth Futrell with instrumental solos.

There will be no meeting next week owing to the Chautauqua.

Those present included: Mesdames O. J. Moore, Charles Lawrence, W. O. Lawrence, Charles A. Jones, W. O. McDowell, H. L. McDowell, C. Frank Burroughs, R. D. Jenkins, R. G. Shackell, Reuben Meredith, O. F. Smith, W. L. Harrell, T. B. Wheeler, B. W. Martin and Mrs. Nicholson, of Columbia, Tenn. Misses Reba and Nannie Shields, Kate Boyette, Elizabeth and Louise Futrell, Gertrude Whitehead and Ione H. Dunn, of Greensboro.

MRS. APPLEWHITE ENTERTAINS DAUGHTERS

Mrs. J. H. Applewhite delightfully entertained the Scotland Neck Chapter, U. D. C., Thursday afternoon at her attractive country home.

Mrs. Applewhite met the guests at the door and invited them into the living room, which was very inviting with vases of poppies and poenies on the table and confederate flags hung on the wall.

After some time spent very pleasantly the hostess, assisted by little Misses Catherine Flaughter and Master Robert Applewhite, served ice tea and delicious strawberries and cream, with strawberry cake.

The guests then departed after expressing their appreciation to Mrs. Applewhite for the gracious hospitality extended to them.
